UPDATE ON KORBAN RITES 2011

The Singapore Mosque Korban Committee (JKMS) is pleased to update that the orders for sheep (kambing biri-biri) for the Korban Rites 2011 has been closed as the orders placed by members of the public has reached its maximum number of 2000 sheeps. This is achieved ahead of the closing date for the Korban registration date on Friday, 28 Oct 2011.

2. Nonetheless, members of the public who wish to perform their korban and aqiqah rites can still do so as there is still supply of some goats (kambing gurun) available. Those who wish to do so may place their orders at the mosques listed below before the closing date mentioned above. The price of goat is $395.00 each.
